

Ali Ghobadi, M.D.

Education

- Medical School (2001-2005), UCSD School of Medicine, San Diego, CA – M.D.
- Residency (2005-2008), UCI Emergency Department, Orange, CA
 - Chief Resident (2008)
 - Outstanding Teaching Resident Award (2008)

Clinical Experience

SCPMG Emergency Physician, Kaiser Permanente Orange Co (2008–Current)

Current Leadership Roles/Projects

- Assistant Chief of Emergency Medicine, Kaiser Permanente Orange County
- Hospital Patient Safety Committee
- Hospital Inpatient Quality Management Executive Committee
- Project Leader – Systems based approach for a successful and sustainable reduction in ED Length of Stay of Fast Track patients at Kaiser Permanente Irvine Medical Center.

Past Leadership Roles/Projects

- Hospital Sepsis Committee Co-Chair (Kaiser Permanente, Orange County)
- Emergency Department Sepsis Champion (Kaiser Permanent, Orange County)
- Emergency Department Language Concordance Champion (Kaiser Permanente, Orange County)
- Critical Events Team Training lead (Kaiser Permanente, Orange County)

Interests

- Evidence-based standardized clinical care pathways
- Application of systems thinking approach to health care
- “Millennial Medicine” (Innovative care, leveraging technology, social media in medicine)